

K-Love radio is a great positive, up-lifting radio station that meets my spiritual needs. It is a blessing in my life and I know it is a blessing to others in the community. It would be a tragedy if an LPFM broadcaster would take its place in my community. K-love is much more of a positive influence to the community than some of the other radio stations that could replace it such as the heavy metal/death metal music that is out there.